

The BCT buys and sells conservation properties through our revolving fund. Click here for more information about our revolving fund.

If you are considering selling your rural NSW property and it contains conservation values, please register your interest in selling to the BCT by completing this form. The information provided allows us to undertake an initial assessment of your property to determine suitability as a potential acquisition target. Registering your interest to sell does not commit or obligate you to sell, nor does it commit obligate the BCT to buy. Click here for detailed Information for property sellers and real estate agents.

4. How your information will be managed

The information received in this form is treated as confidential. However, documents held by the BCT are subject to the Government Information \(Public Access\) Act 2009 (GIPA Act). This means that the information contained in this form may be released in response to an application lodged under the GIPA Act.

The BCT is committed to protecting the privacy of your information. The information you provide in this form will be stored and managed in accordance with provisions under the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998. Our full Privacy Statement and Privacy Management Plan are available on our website.

You may choose not to provide your personal information to the BCT. However, this may mean that we are unable to engage with you in the assessment of the subject property. You may contact the BCT to access and amend the personal information provided.

5. Code of Ethics and Conduct

The BCT has zero tolerance to integrity being breached – staff are to behave ethically and act in the public interest at all times. The Code of Ethics and Conduct for NSW government sector employees sets out standards of conduct for any person working for the BCT in any capacity. The BCT's Statement of Business Ethics outlines the standards of behaviour expected by the department in business relationships with external parties

You may assist the BCT to prevent or address unethical practices by reporting wrongdoing such as fraudulent behaviour. Raise actual or suspected wrongdoing via any of these avenues:

- your BCT contact
- to the governance team via governance@bct.gov.au
- with the relevant investigating authority: NSW Ombudsman, Independent Commission Against Corruption, Audit Office of NSW, or the Information and Privacy Commission
